CITIZENS' ACADEMY

The Campbell County Citizens' Academy (CCCA) is an eight-week educational program designed to educate, involve, and engage Campbell County citizens in the work of various county government entities. It offers participants exposure to a wide variety of subjects and presenters, including local elected officials and county and other professional staff. You must be at least eighteen years of age and a current resident or business owner in Campbell County, Kentucky, to participate. Although applications will be considered on a first come, first served basis, efforts will be made to create a diverse participant class from across the county to reflect the community as a whole. To be considered for the fall 2017 session, return a completed application to the address below by September 13, 2017. Those selected will be notified by September 18, 2017. For more information, call 859-547-1810.
